Subject: Decision on Journal of Neuroscience JN-BC-0106-13R3

26th Jan 2014

Dear Beatriz:

I am pleased to inform you that your revised paper, "The emotional homunculus: ERP evidence for independent somatosensory responses during facial emotional processing," has been accepted for publication in The Journal of Neuroscience.

Your manuscript will now pass through a series of pre-production checks at our Central Office. Soon, you will probably receive correspondence from the Central Office about issues such as figure sizes and color, length of the paper, and various forms that need to be completed. Once your paper is completely ready, you will receive email notification that it has been forwarded to the publisher.

Publication fees are reduced if the first and last authors are members of the Society for Neuroscience. Publication fees for a regular article are $1,090 (for members) and $1,285 (for nonmembers) or for Brief Communication are $555 (for members) and $750 (for nonmembers). If you would like to join SfN and take advantage of membership, visit our Member Center <http://www.sfn.org/member-center/member-benefit>. Unless corrections are needed to your manuscript, you will receive a payment form by e-mail in four to five business days. Please follow the instructions on the form to make your payment; proofs will be sent 2-3 weeks after the payment is made. Article proofs will not be sent to you until the publication fee has been received. Please contact the Central Office with any payment questions by e-mail: jn@sfn.org.

If you wish your article to be made freely available upon publication via the Journal's Open Choice model, please contact jn@sfn.org. Authors will pay $2,735 for regular articles and $1,370 for Brief Communications. Your Open Choice charge will be included on the form on which you agree to pay publication charges.

Finally, the Journal publishes, at no cost to the author, cover illustrations or videos related to an article in that issue. If you have suitable cover art, please submit it within two weeks so we may consider it. Cover art must be deposited at our FTP site (URL link: <ftp://jn.sfn.org>; Host: jn.sfn.org; Account: jnauthor; Password: coverart). Please visit the

Journal's web site for detailed formatting instructions and submission procedures (http://www.jneurosci.org/misc/ifa\_cover.shtml).

On behalf of the Editorial Board, I thank you for submitting this paper to The Journal of Neuroscience.

Yours sincerely,

Matthew Rushworth
Senior Editor
