Dear Authors,

We are pleased to inform you that your manuscript "Segmenting electronic dance music streams based on self-similarity, symmetry, evolution and contiguity" has been accepted for publication in the Special Issue on AIAI 2013 of the International Journal on Engineering Intelligent Systems.

Please send the source files of your final manuscript to this email address. You will later be contacted for a final check of your paper before printing.

Thank you for submitting your work to IJEIS.

Best Regards,

Harris Papadopoulos, Andreas S. Andreou, Lazaros Iliadis and Ilias Maglogiannis
