Dear Authors,

I'm happy to inform you that your paper has been accepted as FULL paper to DBSec 2015. Below are (anonymous) referees' comments about your paper.

Please confirm receipt of this email including the (possibly updated) title and the complete list and affiliations of authors. This will permit to distribute the list of accepted papers. Please also confirm that at least one author will register to the conference and will attend the conference and present the paper.

Within a few days, you will receive the instructions for producing and sending the final version. The firm deadline for the final version is April 30, 2015.

Thank you very much for contributing to DBSec 2015.
I look forward to seeing you at the conference.

See you in Fairfax!

Sincerely,
Pierangela Samarati
DBSec 2015 Program Chair
